Giving With a Purpose

As we approach the holidays, we tend to focus more so on the importance of giving. You may be asked to give of your physical time, talents and/or spiritual gifts. Or it could be providing some emotional guidance to someone who needs support or maybe even financial assistance.

The Forcey Christian Schools Auction is in need of your full support and encourages you to participate at some level to make this event a success. Every family is encouraged to procure (contribute) two items for sale in the auction – either items they donate personally or donations they solicit from businesses in the community. Contributions range from handmade items, movie, symphony, and sports tickets to gift certificates, baskets of goodies, weekends in vacation homes, and unique experiences such as specially prepared dinners or behind-the-scenes tours of local attractions.

If you are on the fence about whether you should give towards this event, I ask you with a warm-heart to think about your children. Our children are truly blessed to attend Forcey Christian Schools. Forcey has provided each one of our children a solid, thriving and encouraging learning environment that is based on the foundation of the Word of God. As a parent of a child attending Forcey Elementary School for four years starting at the 4-year-old nursery, I have seen tremendous growth in my son Jakob - growth that revolves around his academics, his social skills and more importantly, his spiritual well-being. I don't want to start boasting about my child because I'm sure each one of us has an inspirational story to tell. But I do want you to think about your child's growth and development and how Forcey Christian Schools has played a vital role in their lives.

“Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;” Ephesians 5:20

I pray that each one of you that read this will consider contributing towards the Forcey Christian Schools Auction with a generous heart and spirit. Thank You.

LeRachel Buffkins, Publicity Co-Chair

Note: Donation forms are available online and in the Auction boxes located at each school.
